

SCOTCH PAIRS

Scotch Pairs has been introduced into the format of World Rules. You will now play 11 frames in total, which will consist of 5 singles, 1 scotch pairs & 5 singles.

The ruling for Scotch Pairs is as follows:-

THE BREAK WILL BE TERMINED BY WHO TAKES THE BREAK ON THE 1ST FRAME.

- The pair can consist of any player from the playing team, whether they have already played or not.
- Players must alternate between shots even from the break or after a foul. Any player playing out of turn will concede a standard foul (2 visits) away.
- Talking / Discussing is NOT allowed between SHOTS. Players may confer during their opponents visit and up to the point where the first oncoming player touches the table, once this has happened, no more conferring can occur until it is the opponents turn.
