

World Rules Singles League

General info

- All matches to be played.
- Consult your licensee or manager regarding table fees.
- 1 point per frame and 2 points for the win.
- Absolutely no matches to be played after the final date, i.e. you don't have until Saturday.
- If you know you are going on your jollies please play before you go.
- Rearranged games are to be played before the date where possible, or no longer than 2 weeks of the original date.
- No more than 1 outstanding game at any one time.
- If any player pulls out ALL points will be deducted from the start of the league unless a replacement takes over.
- No monies returned if no replacement found.
- Promotion/relegation will not be automatic due to possible fluctuation of league numbers. Discretion will be used where needed.
- If players finish on level points a play off will decide who stays up or goes down, it will not be down to games won or lost.
- All phone numbers to be offered for contact purposes, these will be placed on the fixture list.
- Result sheets to be photographed and posted on the WR singles page on Facebook.
- Fixtures and results will be posted on Facebook and the MPL website once league has been established.
- Any disputes to be settled on the night by consulting the rules together.
- Leave any personal shit at the door. Threats, violence, misconduct or poor behaviour is just not cricket, neither is bitching on social media.
- I expect you to share your knowledge during play to those who are learning the game, this is not a closed shop so don't be a chunt.
- It is only a game of pool, if you can't behave, you can't play, my dad's bigger than your dad and it's my ball so there!!
- Any grief and you'll have Mrs S to answer to. She's excited by your fear and drinks on the tears of the weak, you have been warned.
- The 1st rule of pool club is nobody talks about pool club, the 2nd rule of pool club is nobody talks about pool club, unless we are short and need players, then talk all you want.